MAURO GIACOSA

Production & Export, Giacosa Fratelli

Giacosa Fratelli is a 5th generation family-run winery steeped in values handed down from father to son since 1895. Rooted in Neive, Barbaresco, the family owns 120 acres across communes and crus Barolo and Barbaresco.

Born and raised in Torino, Italy, Mauro's passion lies in connecting the dots between innovation and tradition in Italian winemaking. He grew up learning from the family wine business and went on to receive his degree in Agronomy. His energy and spirit are perpetually fueled by wine and has been since he was a kid.

Mauro and his twin brother Alessandro continue to play soccer in their free time, and they bring their liveliness off the field and to the brand. Mauro loves family tradition and prides himself on being friendly yet decisive – the ideal combination with a magnetic energy everyone enjoys.

The two brothers form a dynamic duo and are excited to lead the next generation of Giacosa Fratelli wines. They blend tradition with innovation as they navigate their family's craft with a fresh perspective and plan to mix history with the future to master their family craft with fresh eyes. They both champion big ideas and showcase their larger-than-life personalities.
