OVERVIEW

Val des Rois was planted in 1965 by 9th generation Burgundian winemaker Romain Bouchard in the village of Valréas, the most northern Village in the Cotes-Du-Rhone. The 10-hectare gravity-fed estate is one of very few hillside vineyard sites in Valréas, is certified organic in farming, and emphasizes low intervention through indigenous yeast and no filtration. Val des Rois, or 'Valley of the King', represents vibrant and energetic wines by legendary winemaker Stéphane Vedeau, who also owns Clos Bellane and J. Boutin.

A great pairing with game meats like venison, elk or lamb. Try with roasted rack of lamb, bbq pork or grilled portabella mushrooms.

WINEMAKING & TECHNICAL DATA

FERMENTATION: Val des Rois uses gravity-fed tanks to respect the integrity of the grapes. All the vinification is carried out without adding sulphites before bottling, leading to rates of very low SO₂.

The Grenache maceration is fairly short and slightly longer for the Syrah to obtain the right tannins.

AGING: Aged in concrete for 1 year before bottling. No use of oak.

PH: 3.6 | TA: 3 gH₂SO₄/L
